

FREE INVITATION

From
Crowthorne Symphony Orchestra
Friday 11th July 2014, 7.30 – 8.30pm
Wellington College (Old Gym)

Pupils, parents and staff from Oaklands Junior School are invited to hear the orchestra as they prepare for the concert on the following day.

This will be an informal occasion. There will be no admission charge or tickets - just turn up on the evening, though we ask that you arrive in good time, say by 7.30pm. Directions to the Old Gym are given below.

From 7.45pm until around 8.30pm, the Orchestra will be rehearsing the "New World" symphony by Dvorak, under the baton of our musical director, Robert Roscoe. Robert will talk about the music and the Orchestra and will introduce some of the instruments during the course of the rehearsal of this well-known work. He may even take questions, all of which is intended to give children an appreciation of the sounds of a full orchestra.

We are extending this invitation as thanks to the school for having accommodated us for our Monday night rehearsals.

Martin Leech
Chairman, Crowthorne Symphony Orchestra

Directions and parking:

Enter the Wellington College grounds by the entrance on Dukes Ride, and travel for about 500m before turning right towards the main school buildings and into the main car park. Please leave your car here and proceed on foot. Immediately in front of the school buildings turn left and follow the road for about 150m. The Old Gym can be found on your right.
