Dear Parents/Carers,

Staffing 2019-2020

Mrs Burrows, our SENCo, will be retiring at the end of this term but we won't be saying goodbye to her just yet, as she has agreed to return for one day a week from September in a different role as class cover / working with small groups. Mr Holland, my Deputy, will be taking on the role of SENCo and, in order to fulfil this additional responsibility, he will no longer have his own class. This will allow the flexibility for him to work with specific groups of children across the school.

While Mrs Mullier has been teaching part-time in Y3, she has also been working towards the qualification of Educational Psychologist over the last four years, which has meant travelling to London each week and working with CAMHS, supporting children in other schools. She will be fully qualified at the end of this year, so will be leaving her class teaching post for this more specialist role. We did not want to lose her expertise, so we are looking forward to welcoming her back into school from September for one day a week as our own Educational Psychologist.

We have successfully recruited two new teachers who will be joining us in September. Miss S Hanks is at present completing her final teaching practice with us in Y5 and we are pleased that she will be staying at Oaklands. We have also recruited a new part-time teacher, Miss J Green, who will be joining Mrs Jones teaching in Y3 from September. All other changes can be seen below:

	Class Teachers	Class TAs &amp; HLTAs
Year 3	Miss J McComish Mrs P Jones / Miss J Green	Mrs T Yeatman & Mrs J Roberts
Year 4	Mr S Lee Miss K Davidson	Mrs L Smith & Mrs D McLaren
Year 5	Miss H Noad Miss S Hanks	Mrs N Townend & Mr A Gunn
Year 6	Miss R Bland Mrs S Alexander	Mrs D Griffiths & Mrs V Burrell

David Harris, one of our Y6 TAs, will be leaving us and we would like to thank him and wish him well in his new role as he moves on. Mr A Gunn, who has been volunteering in school since March, will be joining the staff as a TA.

With the further addition of Mrs J Glover as Office Administrator and Finance Assistant in the school office, we are pleased to inform you we will be fully staffed for September.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. H. West
Headteacher
