

Poetry Competition

Use your perfect poetry skills to celebrate the coronation of King Charles III.

Winning poets will receive a prize and their work displayed in Crowthorne library.

Entry details

Poems should be written on lined paper with name, year group and school clearly written at the bottom of the sheet. These details will be on public display in Crowthorne Library for the winning and highly commended entries.

Entries must be delivered to Crowthorne Library, or Crowthorne Parish Council, before 10am on Monday 24th April.

After judging, winners will be contacted by the parish council via the school, and prizes will be awarded at

Crowthorne's Coronation

Party in the Park

on Saturday 6th May at the Morgan Recreation Ground.
