

2024 Crowthorne Carnival Royalty

Could you be the 2024 Carnival King or Queen? Read below to find out how to enter!

For a chance to be a part of the 2024 Carnival Royalty you must write a short poem based on this year's carnival theme 'Surfing the Seven Seas' and record a video of yourself reading the poem and send it to us at crowthorneroyaltycompetition@gmail.com along with an entry form and written copy of your poem. A copy of the entry form is attached to this letter or can be downloaded from the carnival website, you can also collect a copy from Crowthorne Library. Your video must also contain your name and age. The deadline for Round 1 entries is the 24th March 2024.

A small number of contestants will be invited back to participate in Round 2 (Sunday 14th April) where they will take part in a short activity, have a chat and answer some questions with our 4 wonderful judges. The children will also be asked to read their poems aloud in front of the Judges and fellow contestants. A decision will be made on the day and the winner and runners up will be crowned.

All contestants will receive a letter, either inviting them to take part in Round 2 or explaining that unfortunately this year was not their year.

To enter the competition, you must meet the following requirements:

1. You must live or attend a school in Crowthorne or Sandhurst.
2. Be between 7 and 12 years old on procession day (6th July 2024)
3. You must be available for Round 2 on the 14th April 2024 and all the events that the winner and runners up are required to attend during carnival week, 6th – 14th July 2024.
4. A parent or Guardian must sign the entry form and be present for Round 2.

The Role of the Carnival Royalty is very important, not only will you lead the carnival procession you will attend multiple events during carnival week, your photo and poem will be published in the carnival programme, you will help present prizes on carnival day and read your poems to the whole of Crowthorne! You will also be given outfits to keep and be presented with gifts to remember your day.

Please be aware that this competition is no longer run in the pageant style it used to and the judges will be looking at their personality and confidence.
